To, Too, Two and There, Their, They're

BrightPage

Instructions

1. To means toward, or comes before a verb.
2. Too means also, or more than enough.
3. There tells where, or begins a sentence like "There is."
4. Their shows who owns something.
5. They're is a short way to write they are.
6. Two is the number 2. Read each sentence.
7. Circle the correct word.

Example

Keisha carried her lunchbox (to) / too / two the picnic table.

---

1. Nina brought markers, glue, and scissors to / two / too art class.
2. Their / They're / There bringing lemonade, popcorn, and napkins to the picnic.
3. Mr. Ruiz drove two / too / to the store for milk, eggs, and bread.
4. We counted too / to / two nests in the tall maple tree.
5. My neighbors painted there / their / they're front door a bright green.
6. Hannah draws superheroes of her own, and I do two / to / too.
7. My grandparents keep there / their / they're sled in the garage all summer.
8. Their / There / They're were four kites flying above the windy beach.
9. The city bus was too / two / to crowded for us to sit together.
10. The spotted puppy was too / two / to small to climb the porch steps.
11. The gym was to / too / two noisy for me to hear the whistle.
12. Jamal walks too / to school with his neighbor every morning.