Prepositional Phrases

BrightPage

Instructions

1. A prepositional phrase starts with a preposition and ends with its object: under the table.
2. Put brackets around each prepositional phrase.

Example

[After lunch], we sat [beside the window].

---

1. The keys in the drawer belong to Dad.
2. A tiny frog hopped across the wet path.
3. The path beside the stream leads home.
4. Our class walked to the duck pond.
5. My uncle from Texas sent a birthday card.
6. Before the game, Luis tied his cleats.
7. The key fell through a narrow crack.
8. He read the note under the lamp.
9. In the morning, frost covered the field.
10. My sister reads under a thick quilt.