Relative Pronouns: Who, Whom, Whose, Which, That

BrightPage

Instructions

1. Who stands for a person doing the action.
2. Whom stands for a person the action is done to.
3. Whose shows who owns something.
4. Which stands for a thing or an animal.
5. That can stand for a person or a thing.
6. Each one starts a clause that tells more about a noun.
7. Fill each blank with the correct one.

Example

The student whose notebook was missing borrowed paper.

---

1. The path, _____ was muddy, ran beside the stream.
2. The singer for _____ we clapped bowed twice.
3. The guest _____ we expected never came.
4. Mrs. Patel, _____ runs the corner store, knows every name on our street.
5. Our garden, _____ gets sun all day, grows beans, peas, and corn.
6. The cat _____ paws are white sleeps on our front step.
7. The box in _____ I keep my marbles is painted red.
8. The singer _____ voice carried filled the hall.
9. The chair _____ broke was very old.
10. Our neighbor, _____ grows tomatoes, shared a whole basket.
11. The friend with _____ I traveled is ill.