Commas After Introductory Elements

BrightPage

Instructions

1. A comma follows an introductory word, phrase or clause.
2. The introductory part cannot stand on its own as a sentence.
3. Add introductory commas correctly.

Example

After the storm, we swept the yard.

---

1. Yes I remembered the tickets.

2. Finally the last box fit in the trunk.

3. Surprised by the noise the cat ran.

4. To stay safe check your helmet strap before you ride.

5. At the top of the hill we could see the whole town.

6. No the park trail does not close at sunset.

7. Smiling at the crowd Carlos raised the small trophy.

8. Nevertheless the team kept playing.

9. For the first time Mia rode alone.

10. As soon as the sun came up the rooster started crowing.