Plural and Possessive Nouns

BrightPage

Instructions

1. A plural means more than one; a possessive shows ownership with an apostrophe.
2. Correct the plurals or possessives in the following sentences.

Example

The two girl's coats hung by the door.

The two girls' coats hung by the door.

---

1. Three fox's crossed the field.

2. We counted six butterflys near the milkweed.

3. The womans voice carried across the hall.

4. Red and yellow leafs covered the picnic table.

5. Five shelfs in the garage hold paint cans.

6. The two teachers desks face the tall window.

7. Three deers stepped out of the woods at dusk.

8. The sheeps wool kept them warm.