Writing Titles of Works

BrightPage

Instructions

1. Underline the title of a whole work, like a book; put a short piece, like a poem or a chapter, in quotation marks.
2. Write each title the way it should be formatted: underline a whole work, and put a short piece in quotation marks.

Example

We borrowed the book the lantern tree from the library.

The Lantern Tree, underlined — a whole book

---

1. Our teacher read the poem after rain aloud.
2. Hana clipped a recipe from the magazine kitchen helpers.
3. Everyone knows the song summer rain.
4. Sofia could not put down the novel the island of lost letters.
5. Zoe wrote a report about the novel the winter we moved.
6. Uncle Dev packed the book birds of the high desert for the trip.
7. Kyle reads the magazine rocks and minerals at the dentist's office.
8. Ravi wrote out the poem a letter home.
9. Our book group chose the novel the glass bridge.
10. Mrs. Patel recommended the novel the bridge at pine lake.